Research Start-Up Fund for New Staff

Purpose

1. The Victoria University Research Start-Up Fund for New Staff provides resources to assist eligible, newly appointed academic staff to establish their research career at the University.

Eligibility and Application

2. This fund will be available to all new staff who have completed their PhD, and are appointed for 3 years or longer to a teaching and research position.

   This fund does not apply to new Post Doctoral Fellows or Research Fellows and is restricted to Senior Lecturer (Category C) and below.

3. Applications are evaluated on academic merit by the relevant College Research Director.

4. Grants are normally of one-year duration, and should be applied for during the first year of appointment, and normally submitted with the Individual Research Development Plan.

5. The maximum sum that may be applied for is $4,000.

6. To access funds, researchers are to submit a research proposal form briefly describing their research project, and an indicative budget, to their College Research Director.

7. The outline of the proposed project should briefly state the following information in lay language:
   - aims
   - research design
   - significance within the research field,
   - relevance to individual research development plan
   - how the project relates to the College research plan, and
   - expected outcomes, including commercial opportunities.

8. Each College will determine their own process for assessing the applications.

Expected Outcomes and Outputs

10. Possible outputs and outcomes resulting from the project include:
    publications, external research grant applications, commercial opportunities, and new patents.

Administration of Funds

11. The funds will be administered by the College and Pro Vice-Chancellor (Research and Research Training).

12. Where the project requires ethical clearance by any of the University's Ethics Committees, funds will not usually be released until after the appropriate clearance has been obtained.

13. In terms of accountability, a brief report on the outcomes will be required within two-months of the project’s completion, and acquittal must occur by the end of the first eighteen months of appointment.
